The FREE glossy A4 magazine targeting parents and teachers of 4–11 year old children in Lincolnshire...

Published 7 times a year, each issue is full of news, features, money off vouchers and competitions. Our established publication has been given out by schools in the county for over 16 years! Primary Times works harder to promote your business whether it be through your advert in the magazine, telling your story online or through social media.

“We are really pleased with our advertising so far in Primary Times, we ran an offer over Summer and had a lot of redemptions compared to other adverts we placed in other magazines. The team are always very helpful and the artwork is always spot on. Great company to work with who have a more personal touch than many other advertising options which I think really helps.”
